CAUTION.

ALL persons are hereby forewarned from trading for our several notes, executed by me to David H. Hoopes and Wm. T.
Purnell, partners in Port Gibson in the practice of law. Two notes were executed in or about the 15th day of January, 1833—The one to David H. Hoopes, for the sum of three hundred and seventy-five dollars, and another to Wm. T. Purnell for the same sum of money, and being in or about the same date, and each of the first notes were payable I think, about six months after date.
The two other notes were in like manner executed, the one to David H. Hooper, and the other to Wm. T. Purnell, in amount five hundred dollars each note. The said notes were executed about twelve months since. This is to caution all persons from trading for the said notes described above, as the consideration has utterly and entirely failed for which they were severally executed; and to fore warn persons from paying to said Hoopes & Purnell any debt due to me.

And I wish it further understood, that James E. P. Bacon and William R. T.
Chapman, are my true & lawful attorneys, and that I do by this notice, give them unlimited power, to close all of my business, in any way that they may deem most conducive to my interest. All persons who are still in arrears to me, will save cost by calling at the office of either Bacon or Chapman at Port Gibson, and closing their accounts, &c.

Bright, deceased, make an inventory of all of said estate with the Probate Court of Yazoo County, and afterwards my

A CARD.

HAVING established ourselves in the city of Vicksburg, with the view of facilitating the business of the house of Hart, Butler & Co. of New Orleans and the Planters in this section of the state. We wish a share of public patronage, we feel ourselves fully competent to afford the usual facilities to the planters which has heretofore been extended to them by the number of well known established houses, both of this city and the city of New Orleans.

We are assured to say to the Planter that the house in New Orleans has taken out an open policy of Insurance which extends to the waters of the Mississippi, Ohio and Missouri rivers, and all their tributaries, which advantage it is to the planter when shipping his cotton to the houses of Hart, Butler & Co. and informing them, of the house of A. Hart Jr. & Co. of the shipment; to whom his house will be considered fully insured and protected from loss or damage.

We will receive and forward cotton, and will at all times be prepared to sell bills of Exchange on New Orleans in sums to suit purchasers, at sight.

A. HART Jr. & Co.

Office Washington st., nearly opposite Childres Hotel.
